DO YOU KNOW…

In general:

- Who is your laboratory safety representative? _____________________________
- Who is your Research Operations Manager (ROM)? _______________________
- The location of your “Chemical Hygiene Plan”? __________________________
- How access Material Safety Data Sheets? _________________________________
- The location of your “Exposure Control Plan” ___________________________

In the event of evacuation:

- Who is your emergency coordinator? ________________________________
- The location of the nearest two exits _________________________________
- The location of the nearest alarm boxes ______________________________
- The designated outdoor meeting site for your building ___________________

In the event of a chemical spill or exposure:

- The location of the nearest safety shower ______________________________
- The location of the nearest eyewash station ____________________________
- The location of the nearest spill cleanup materials _______________________

In the event of any emergency:

- The emergency phone numbers for your area ___________________________

Please complete this checklist when you return to your laboratory and keep it in a convenient location for reference.

Revised 10/2005